

FOUNDERS

Charles Williamson,
President & CEO

- Charles believes results are driven by trusted team. He grew AIG Private Client Group from $400M to 1.2B. Charles has an unhealthy obsession with CrossFit and the NY Jets.

Nick Muqtadir
Chief Financial Officer

- Nick believes strong partnerships and a customer centric culture are essential for profitable growth. A founding member of AIG Private Client Group, Nick spent 17 years at AIG holding various leadership roles. Nick likes to travel to interesting places around the world.

Brandelyn C. Roth, FCAS, MAAA
Chief Actuary

- Brandy is a "converted" actuary. As a math devotee – she fought becoming an actuary as long as she could. Former Chief Actuary at AIG PCG. Her line is now "who knew being an actuary would be so much fun!" She also enjoys working out and being a mother to her teenage son.

Peter Piotrowski
Chief Claims Officer

- Pete is committed to servicing our customers unique and individual claims needs. He previously led the high net worth claims practice at AIG for over 10 years. He is an avid bicyclist and runner.

Mary Qualls,
Chief Underwriting Officer

- Mary thrives with details. Previously at AIG and ACE, she has experience in both commercial and personal lines. She enjoys Broadway musicals (originals over revivals) and her furbabies.

Stephen Bitterman
Chief Risk Services Officer

- Steve has spent his entire career providing bespoke risk management services to wealthy individuals. He spent 17 years at AIG building their Platinum Accounts Program. When he is not spending time with his wife and daughters, he can be found playing tennis or working in his garden.

Stacy Warren,
Chief Customer and Sales Officer

- At 22, Stacy owned her own independent insurance agency. Ensuring impeccable insurance experience for our agents and clients is her number one goal. A former AIG exec for more than 14 years. If you don't find her competing on the tennis court, look for her sharing her passion for great wine.

Michele Verducci
VP Information Technology

- Michele has worked on both the IT and business sides of the house. Previously at AIG where she managed the system implementation of predictive analytics and underwriting rule sets. She enjoys the beach and anything Disney.
